Freighters haul at a breakneck pace across the open ocean, often through storms. A cruise will be populated with thousands of people, whereas a freighter is often a larger vessel with only 20 or so people on it. While a cruise ship has restaurants, spas, gymnasiums, and tons of activities, a freighter will have a TV with a DVD player, a radio ...

Crossing the Ocean on a Cargo Ship | The Art of Manliness

A pedestrian island and high-visibility crosswalk has already been added to the intersection of Ocean Parkway at Church Avenue, following the tragic death of 73-year-old neighbor Ngozi Agbim, who was hit by a tractor trailer while crossing the street in 2013. And this wasn't an isolated incident; according to a NYC DOT report, five people were killed or injured by cars at this intersection between 2007-2011.
